In a matter coming before this Court upon Petitioner Vojtěch's petition for administrative review filed on or near June 29, 2009. Therein, this matter was fully briefed and oral argument was had on or near April 2, 2010, at which time this court remanded this matter to the Police Board for issuance of its public findings of facts and the weight given those facts relative to the identification of petitioner as the perpetrator. Thereafter, on or near July 15, 2009, the Police Board entered its findings and decision as remanded which was filed with this court. Thereafter, the parties submitted briefs regarding those findings as remanded. On December 1, 2009, the Board's findings and decision on remand were being provided to the Board and parties being heard in open court, it was hereby ordered ((1) that the Board's findings and decision on remand be rejected ((2) based on that this court cannot find that the Board's decision was against the clear and weighty preponderance of the evidence, (2) based on that this court cannot find that the Board's decision was against the clear and weighty preponderance of the evidence,
